YALOVA ABOUT

Yalova became a province in 1995 until which time it had been a district of Istanbul. Yalova is rich in resources and also historical monuments and is an extremely beautiful province.

The first settlement in Yalova dates back to the Prehistoric period with findings dating back to 3000BC. The first rulers in Yalova were the Hittites who ruled around the 21st century BC and they were then followed in the 13th century BC by the Phrygians. The Kimmer invasion took place in 700 BC and there are notable traces of the Bithynian influence prior to Bithynia being annexed to Rome as a bequest in 74BC.

There are also traces of the Byzantine reign which soon gave way to the Ottoman Empire.

Yalova relies on the tourist trade and therefore every effort is made to ensure that there are reasons for the tourist to choose Yalova for their holidays. Yalova is also one of the most important spa centres in Turkey, and it is famous for its thermal tourism. Other than the thermal tourism which is available all year round this port city also provides ideal opportunities for beach tourism and alternative holiday options such as, sports and nature tourism which can take place in both the spring and the autumn and ensures that there is something available and appealing to visitors all year round and the income that is generated from the tourism does not solely rely on the weather.
